KerberRose Expands Wausau Location with Acquisition of Local CPA Firm

KerberRose is pleased to announce the addition of Hack CPA, S.C. to our firm as an addition to our Wausau, WI location. This agreement is effective as of August 1, 2023, and will include Hack CPA, S.C.'s team members, clients and assets. The addition of Hack CPA, S.C. will strengthen KerberRose's presence as a local firm with regional firm capabilities in northcentral Wisconsin.

Hack CPA, S.C. staff will relocate to the KerberRose Wausau location. The office will have more than 20 full-time staff representing multiple services. Current founder and owner, John J. Hack, CPA, will be available as needed to assist in the transition and work with clients.

"KerberRose has been steadily growing its presence in our northcentral region—consisting of our offices in Wausau, Stevens Point and Wisconsin Rapids—including investing in a renovated office in Stevens Point this year. We feel the addition of talented new team members in Wausau will continue to cement KerberRose as a local trusted business partner capable of providing a wide array of accounting and advisory services to businesses and individuals in Wisconsin," said Managing Shareholder, Erik Bunnell, CPA.

KerberRose is excited to start servicing Hack CPA, S.C. clients and offer a variety of value-added services beyond traditional accounting and tax, such as human resource consulting, technology solutions, wealth management and retirement plan services. The KerberRose Wausau office is located at 1429 Merrill Ave.
