EAGLE RIVER, WI – KerberRose is excited to announce the appointment of Kalisa Mortag, CPA, as a Shareholder, effective January 1, 2024.

Kalisa joined KerberRose in the fall of 2021 following the acquisition of her prior firm. In a short period, she has significantly impacted the company, demonstrating exceptional leadership, business development, and innovation in the Eagle River area.

Beyond her professional contributions, Kalisa embodies KerberRose's community-oriented values as a dedicated Town Supervisor for St. Germain.

"Kalisa's proactive approach to change, enhancing internal processes for improved efficiency and client experience, aligns seamlessly with KerberRose's culture and Shareholder responsibilities," states Erik Bunnell, Managing Shareholder at KerberRose. "Her strong leadership and investment in her team have expanded our presence as a top accounting and advisory firm in North and Central Wisconsin.

KerberRose proudly welcomes Kalisa's leadership and determination to our Shareholder group."
